

Call for Submissions of ART & WRITING For The BRIDGE PROJECT: A Community Art Installation

Theme: How we connect to other people across differences of age, gender, race, class, religion, culture, sexuality, nationality, ability, etc.

Requirements: Create artwork and/or write on 5 x 7 watercolor paper.

Submit: Send to Stover Insurance at 214 East Jackson Street, Front Royal, VA 22630 or place into marked boxes at Blue Wing Frog, Happy Creek Coffee, or the Samuels Public Library. DEADLINE: February 15, 2018

Note: Finished artwork will become part of a community art installation and will not be returned. Please send your name & contact info with the artwork.

Workshops: Free art/writing workshops will be held on January 20 and 27 at the Samuels Library from 10 am-12 pm to create the cards. Ages 12 and up.

Event: Finished cards will be affixed to a wooden slat rope bridge for display at a public event celebrating our connections across difference.

For more information: Email Heather Davis at hdavis67@gmail.com.

Building Bridges in the Blue Ridge

The Bridge Project is sponsored by United ShenValley Artists (an outreach of Selah Theatre Project) and seeks to explore the connections we make or would like to make across difference in the Shenandoah Valley.
